

Cookie Policy

Overview

We use essential cookies to run the site and, with your consent, analytics/advertising cookies (e.g., Google Analytics, Meta Pixel). Non-essential cookies are not set until you accept. You can change your choices at any time via Cookie Settings.

Types of Cookies We Use

- Essential — required for core functionality (security, login, preferences).
- Analytics — to understand site usage and improve services.
- Advertising — to deliver/measure ads (where used).

Key Cookies/Providers (examples)

- Google Analytics (_ga, _gid) — analytics — typical duration 24 months
- Meta Pixel — advertising/measurement — duration set by Meta
- Session cookies — essential — end of session

Managing Cookies

Use our Cookie Banner/Settings to accept/reject non-essential cookies. You can also manage cookies via your browser settings.

US & Global Compliance Addendum

Effective date: 22 October 2025

This addendum explains how our cookie practices align with US state privacy laws and other jurisdictions.

Do Not Sell or Share / Targeted Advertising

Some cookies enable “sharing” or “targeted advertising” under certain US state laws. Use Cookie Settings or the Do Not Sell or Share My Personal Information link in our footer to opt out.

Global Privacy Control (GPC)

We honour GPC signals where required by law by treating them as an opt-out for the browser that sends the signal.

Consent & Preferences

Non-essential cookies will not run until you consent. You can change your preferences at any time in Cookie Settings. Essential cookies remain active to operate the site.

US, Canada, Brazil, Australia

We follow applicable cookie/consent requirements in these regions and update our banner/controls accordingly.
